

2021 AOTS Webinar [KROP15]
<Kaizen Marathon Series>
Innovative Cost Reduction Approach from Japan (MFCA)
-Challenge to Low Cost Kaizen-

Organized by The Association for Overseas Technical Cooperation and Sustainable Partnerships (AOTS)
Collaborated by AOTS Alumni Societies

BACKGROUND

The Association for Overseas Technical Cooperation and Sustainable Partnerships (AOTS) is an organization for human resources development mainly in overseas countries to promote technical cooperation through training, experts dispatch and other programs. Through those programs, we aim at contributing to the mutual economic growth of developing countries and Japan as well as enhancing friendly relations among those countries.

AOTS webinar “Innovative Cost Reduction Approach from Japan (MFCA) -Challenge to Low Cost Kaizen-”, is a program suitable for Kaizen (Continuous Improvement) activity team leaders or managers who would like to develop their Kaizen activities in the way that they can achieve the cost reduction or who think that their present Kaizen activities do not result in the cost reduction. And also suitable for those who have plans for future efforts to learn how to carry out Kaizen activities.

*Although this webinar will be implemented as a sequel to “For continuous 5S and Kaizen that you can successively develop ---Challenge to Kaizen Marathon---” held in September and October, 2021, it is also possible to participate only in this webinar.

OUTLINE

The economic shock caused by the global epidemic of the new coronavirus infection is still significant, and developing countries need to improve the productivity of their companies in order to survive the headwinds of the coronavirus.

Kaizen activities are one of the effective means for improving corporate productivity, but in order to further improve productivity, along with continuous Kaizen activities that form the basis, furthermore, Kaizen activities from a new perspective of reducing overlooked losses and cost reduction are inevitable. Therefore, this webinar is designed for managers who want to gain the approval and understanding of the top management in the development of Kaizen activities, and team leaders who motivate team members to promote Kaizen activities to learn about the concept and practices of the Material Flow Cost Accounting/ Analysis (MFCA), an innovative cost reduction approach as a low cost Kaizen method.

OBJECTIVES

We aim for Kaizen activity team leaders or managers who are engaged in Kaizen activities or have plans for future efforts in companies in developing countries to achieve the following goals:

We aim for Kaizen activity team leaders or managers who are engaged in Kaizen activities or have plans for future efforts in companies in developing countries to achieve the following goals:

- 1) To learn the outline and practical examples of MFCA and understand the significance of MFCA.
- 2) To understand that "visualization" of "mottainai" (loss that is overlooked) leads to cost reduction.
- 3) To understand that MFCA can be applied to reduce the participants' companies' own costs.
